

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is completely uncomprehensible to me, it's seem to be that this is an illegal action by a corporate media giant.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.